

Hi my name is Clalinda Davis and my play is two best friends.
This play is about two friends that were dating the same boy and have no idea.
My play focuses on Friendship.
This play centers around two best friends.

Artist Process Questions

What is your process as a writer/playwright? To show others that no matter what, never leave your best friend for a boy cause that boy will leave you but your best friends will always be there for you.

Have you written a play before? If not, what was this like for you? If so, how was this different from your previous experience? I have never written a play. And it was very difficult for me.

What was the most challenging part of writing your play? Giving every character a role.

What are you most proud of with your play? That I was able to finish it and it came out better than I expected.

What did you learn in the process of writing your play with our amazing teaching artist Jose Nateras? I learn a lot of techniques we can use to write a play.
