

The O' is for obstruction.

“A thing that impedes , prevents passage or progress.

We live and live as minorities kept from our American rights.

Politically outcast amongst those who made the laws for us but not by us.

We were treated as outsiders different from the rest.

Lied to and being fed bias.

The 'P is for persecution.

The systematic mistreatment of an individual or group by the founders of America in an unjust pursuit.

They teach us to fear in the land of the free , to scour in the tree, instead of the sky as the eagle should be.

The Second 'P doesn't stand for you and me.

It showcases the PRIDE in what they've done to the minorities.

Privilege is not something that is earned but given by society.

Only if we possess the characteristics that society values.

They are viewed as the majority which are those who hold power.

The 'R is for ridicule.

The mockery pursued that victimizes our youth.

The E is for encumbered.

We were stricken with restrictions like the chains that bonded as slaves.

Now those chains are relinquished but they took on the form of cuffs held by the politically corrupt.

Locking us in prison while the victimizers run amok.

The S' is systematic.

“Defined as the patterns of behavior”.

Created through the messages people receive about what is valued but are deceived ultimately leading to the final S.

This S' causes so much stress.

The thought behind it makes me fret.
