Let me tell you how im feeling

This is just a simple little letter 2 my sister

I wanna tell my feeling to my big & little sisters

I want u to stay strong to the niggas i call killas

I know this not a gift i Dont have money to be spending

I wanna do better your the blessings ive been giving

I dont wanna see u hurt this world blessed me giving such beautiful big and little sisters

Yea yea

I know at times i be tripping

Sometimes i do the most but this is just me wanting to tell you bout my feelings

I dont wanna hide these feelings deep inside of me

Trying to do better i hope you believe in me

One day ill be a legend and your the reason i came to be

Sometimes i be hurt i want u to spend some time with me

But i know i lack communications its clear to me to see

At times I've been hurt

Been sitting in the dirt

I know i don't show it but i will always put you first

Im sorry ive been a bad little brother truly hurts

d rather get shot then to see yall buried in the dirt

I love yall so much feels like my hearts about to burst

Kept my circle small yall taught me that and truly works
